

INTRODUCTION TO GRANT WRITING

Presented by OSU Office of Extension, Medina County

Are you looking for grant funding but don't know where to begin? Join us on March 26 for an Introduction to Grant Writing Workshop taught by Kyle White, Community Development Educator for OSU Extension Medina County.

You will learn the basics of the grant writing process including:

- How Funders are structured and why it matters.
- Where to start your research.
- How to determine if a funder is a good fit for your organization
- Whether your organization is grant ready.

Additionally, you will learn to identify common grant writing traps and ways to avoid them.
