

Medina County Government Leadership Academy

BECOME A SPONSOR

Students learn basic rules, existing resources, and delve into topics including leadership, team building, and economic development among others. The Academy curriculum has been presented across the state by Ohio State University Extension for over a decade. In this class series, Ohio State University Extension, Medina County, working in cooperation with Leadership Medina County digs deeper into government related topics.

The Leadership Academy consist of 13 weekly classes held weekly from Thursday, January 4, 2018 through Thursday, March 29, 2018.

- Sponsors will be displayed on our Leadership Academy web page and during all classes.
- Each week one sponsor will be featured.
 - A Company Representative is invited for a light dinner and:
 - Networking prior to class.
 - May present for five minutes:
 - About their company and products and/or services.
 - Can distribute literature.

Gold Level Sponsors will receive one (1) free membership to the 13 class series (a $395 value).
