

You Write The Grant

Grant Writing Workshop

Presented by OSU Office of Extension, Medina County

Applying Introduction to Grant Writing skills and for new grant writers, members of the class will complete a grant application from beginning to end!

Class 1: April 9th Using a grant request you have selected and under the guidance of the instructor, you will write the draft of the grant proposal.

Class 2: April 23rd Members of the class will critique each others work and finalize their grant proposal.

The goal is for each member of the class to leave with a completed, ready to submit proposal.

This is a two class workshop.

Join us on April 9th and April 23rd— and look forward to submitting a winning proposal at the conclusion of the class!

This class is taught by Kyle White Community Development Educator for OSU Extension Medina County.
